Important Notes

You should write down and keep your application number for later use.

Applicants who fail to submit the required documents by the specified dates, even if their online applications are completed, will be excluded from the screening process.

All notifications during the application period (including the announcement of admitted applicants) shall be made on the CNU Admission website (<http://international.jnu.ac.kr/>).

After your application is successful, you must submit official government verification of your degree (e.g., Apostille, Notarization by embassy). Otherwise, your admission will be canceled.

All documents should be in either Korean or English. Documents in other languages must be accompanied by _____

Students found to have forged or illegally changed any application documents or Students' academic background proves to be insufficient (e. g. completion of unaccredited university in the corresponding country) may have their admission to CNU revoked regardless of their academic status (before or after admission, including graduation).

Applicants who have submitted a certificate of prospective (expected) graduation must submit the officially verified graduation certificate. Otherwise, the admission will be cancelled.
