

At MU Vienna, you could be furthering your education in a Master program designed to help you make a difference in the world. You could also be taking part in the center of Europe in Austria's capital city and finding a world-class hilltop campus. Modul University Vienna is proudly considered Austria's leading international private university and is owned by the British company Talen School Limited and the Vienna Chamber of Commerce. Both organizations are eager to join the worldwide education of Modul University Vienna.

Master students from over 70 countries call MU Home

What's the best thing about being a Modulan? We're proud to have an 83% international student population. This means here's all a matter of learning from our classmates all around the world. MU welcomes you in modern campus buildings in the north of Vienna, a dedicated academic environment.

Academic and business-oriented education

As an MU Master student, you can do an internship to benefit from real-world immersion in a managerial area of your choice while earning ECTS points. Top students can also participate in the Excellence Program which pairs MSc students with senior representatives of Austrian and international companies. Gain first-hand experience working together with senior management in a professional environment, and be ready to launch your career directly afterwards.
